CLARKE'S LATEST PLAY 'THE BEST'

MARGARET DALE OWEN.

"His Absent Boy" produced by the Clarke company last night at the Opera House is the best comedy yet produced by this excellent combination. From the beginning to the end there is one long series of genuine laughter. On Clarke practically devolves the whole work. He does it in a way that leaves nothing to be desired, and it is likely that "His Absent Boy" will go down as the funniest piece in the repertoire of this company. The cast of characters is a small one, but all concerned give the necessary support.

The plot has been told in these columns. It deals with a fictitious son invented by Mr. Pennie (Clark) who has a tight-fisted wife (Margaret Dale Owen). He enlists her sympathies and she resolves to send the absent boy $100 a month. The money is confiscated by Pennie and stored by him in a cigar box under the very nose of his wife. Mrs. Pennie's heart softens to the absent boy, who is "out there in the Rockies," and she wants to bring him back. The trouble that Clarke goes through before he is able to renounce his son because he is a fugitive from justice provides perhaps the greatest lot of humorous situations this city has ever seen crowded into so short a play. The house showed that it enjoyed the production.

Clarke, of course, is good. His old man who is able to fool his wife was grand. He portrayed the part splendidly and added considerably to the gaiety when he sang and danced. It is during this latter feat that his wife comes in, and not noticing her, he continues to kick up his legs and pirouette around the stage, only to sink almost to the floor when he discovers her stony stare fixed on him. Margaret Dale Owen as Mrs. Pennie was hardly convincing enough. But who could be convincing with Clarke telling her that Butte had only one tree in it and that had been fenced off and photographed and no one was allowed to go near it? In the circumstances, she must be congratulated that she did not laugh more frequently, especially when Clarke went wobbly-legged at her because she had mentioned the words "Why not?" which he mistook for the name that he had given to his fictitious son.

As Colonel Mackay, Wm. D. Taylor was fine. But Taylor is good in everything he undertakes, and no fault can be found with his interpretation of any part that he assumes. He was not seen enough last night—that was the only fault with him.

As Mr. Burney, Leo Pierson was splendid. He did look "so miserable" that even the stoniest hearted would have to take pity on him," as Mrs. Pennie observed. The character of Burney is certainly the best that Pierson has played here. The others who helped were Richard Barbee, Betty Tracy, Vail Hobart, Marian Dunn, Alma Murphy and Nellie Franzin, all of whom were good. Miss Murphy deserves special mention for her shyly-rendered song and dance. She was entitled to the encores.

As the orchestra does not start until 8:30 on any night it is strongly suspected that 8:30 is the starting hour, despite the advertised hour of 8:15.

"His Absent Boy" will be repeated tonight and tomorrow evening, with "Christopher Jr." for the balance of the week, including the Saturday matinee.

I Am Willing To Prove I Can Cure You

To That End I Am Giving Away $10,000 Worth of Medicine

In order to show beyond all doubt that I am in possession of a medicine that will cure kidney trouble, bladder trouble or rheumatism, I will this year give away ten thousand dollars' worth of this medicine, and anyone suffering from these diseases can get a box of it absolutely free. All that is necessary is to send me your address.

I don't mean that you are to use a part of it or all of it and pay me if cured. I mean that I will send you a box of this medicine absolutely free of charge, a gift from me to the Urine Acid sufferers of the world, so I can show them where and how they may be cured. I will not expect payment for this free medicine, nor would I accept it now or later if you sent it. It is free in the real meaning of the word.

For twenty-five years—a quarter of a century—I have been trying to convince the public that I have something genuine, something better than others have for the cure of stone, chronic rheumatism, for torturing kidney backache, for annoying calls to urinate. But it is hard to convince people—they try a few things unsuccessfully and give up all hope and refuse to listen to anyone thereafter. Happily, I am in a position now to demonstrate to sufferers at my own expense that I have a medicine that cures these diseases. I don't ask them to spend any money to find out; I don't ask them to believe me, nor even to take the word of reliable people, but all I ask is that they allow me to send them the medicine at my own cost. That is surely fair.

To this end I have set aside ten thousand dollars, which will be used to compound my medicine. Much of it is ready now to be sent out, all of it fresh and standard. There will be enough for all sufferers, though there be thousands of them. And anyone who needs it can get some of it free. But in order that I shall know that you have a disease for which this medicine is intended, I ask you to send me some of your leading symptoms. If you have any of the symptoms in the list printed here you need my medicine and if you will write me I will gladly send you a box of it free with full directions for your use. Look the symptoms over, see which symptoms you have, then write me about as follows: "Dear Dr., I notice symptoms number"—here put down the numbers, give your age, full address, and send it to me. My address is Dr. T. Frank Lynott, 750 Occidental Bldg., Chicago, Ill.

The ten thousand dollars I am spending for the compounding of my medicine is only a part of the money I am devoting to this cause, for the package of medicine I send you will be fully prepaid at my expense. From any standpoint you view it, YOU incur no expense or obligation. Just tell others who you know are suffering who sent you the medicine that cured you.

I am promising to give away ten thousand dollars' worth of medicine, and I will do that; I am promising to send any sufferer who writes me a box of this medicine and full directions free of charge, and I will do that.

DR. T. FRANK LYNOTT who is giving away $10,000 worth of medicine.

I can say further that this medicine has been vouched for according to law as complying in every detail with all requirements. It will stop rheumatism, it will stop pain and laceration, it will stop too frequent desire to urinate; it will heal, soothe and strengthen. You will be better in every way for having taken it. There is not an ingredient that can injure; not one but will benefit. All that I ask is that you use it yourself so that you may be personally convinced.

Owing to the large number of requests, I have had ten thousand more copies of my medical book printed. This book is new and up to date and contains complete descriptions, symptoms, causes, effects and cures of kidney, bladder and rheumatic diseases. All who write for the free medicine will be sent a copy of this grand illustrated medical book—the largest ever written on these diseases for free and general distribution.

If you need medicine such as I have, if you are anxious to be cured and don't want to spend any money LOOKING for cures, write me. Read the symptoms over and let me hear from you today.
